

Graphic Designer

Studiothink is looking for an enthusiastic and talented graphic designer who has a passion for design and branding, and is able to develop stunning and strategic design across a number of platforms, including web, print, packaging, identity and digital.

Our ideal candidate will have a minimum of 1-5 years experience working as a designer, and an innate ability to just 'get it' when it comes to producing anything from ads, to logos, packaging, websites or digital. Your skills allow you to easily and quickly complete the design and production needed on any project, big or small.

A day in the life at Studiothink will require you to juggle multiple projects, all while functioning under the pressure of deadlines. This means you must be cool under pressure, have a great sense of humour, a positive outlook, and be able to focus your attention on creating great design without sacrificing quality.

You will be working closely with an amazing team of account executives, designers and programmers, and are willing to collaborate on projects, offering your advice, input and ideas.

You have wicked CS5 skills in Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign and Dreamweaver, and a can easily move from print to web design. You have front end programming abilities and are interested and capable of delving further into digital design.

As our new Studiothinker, you will not only be required to be an exceptional and passionate designer, but you will also have the desire and motivation to be a Studiothink evangelist who is passionate about the people, the direction and the vision of the company.

This is a full-time, permanent position, and requires you to have an outstanding ability to communicate, both written and verbal. If you want to be our latest and greatest Studiothinker, please provide the following:

- Cover letter outlining your salary expectations
- Resume
- An excellent portfolio featuring logo, print and web design samples
- PDF format only, although links to portfolios will be accepted

Email the above items to careers@studiothink.com, attention to Sherry Jacobi.

Thank you in advance for your submission, but only those who meet our full requirements will be contacted. Out of country applications will not be considered.

Traits of our next Studiothinker.

- Exemplifies our 10 Core Values.
- A passion for design and creativity.
- An innate ability to just 'get it' when it comes to designing a wide array of media, whether websites, logos, packaging, print or digital media.
- Fluent in Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign, Dreamweaver.
- Minimum 1-5 years experience putting your talents to good use, and a strong portfolio.
- A desire to work with an agency, and a team of equally talented and motivated people.
- Web design skills, and ability to do front end web programming using Dreamweaver, HTML, CSS.
- Able to act with style under deadlines and stress, even when your system crashes.
- A friendly, outgoing personality with quirks, we love quirks.
- A genuine interest in expanding your knowledge and learning new skills.
- You love your industry, and keep current on trends in web, packaging, digital and print design.
- Can quickly and easily grasp a client's business, to ensure your design meets their marketing and brand objectives.
- Out there blogging, networking and tweeting as an active Studiothink evangelist.
- Is just plain fun to work with, play with and hang with.
- You are probably the type who will get a lot of use out of 'Unwined', our wine and coffee bar.
- A well put together portfolio of work.
- Have we put enough emphasis on your portfolio?