

ThinkOne program.

ThinkOne is Studiothink's all-in-one account. This account is designed for companies who have a high volume and variety of work throughout the year. ThinkOne is a flexible hourly program you can use for any of our services every month. Whether you need a new website, frequent ads or brochures, newsletters, trade show materials or online promotions, ThinkOne is there for you. The advantages of having a ThinkOne account are a discounted hourly rate, plus the security of knowing your brand is being maintained and evaluated every week. Simply choose a package based on the amount of work you need each month, and leave the rest to us.

ThinkOne services include:

- > Graphic design and production
- > Website design and programming
- > Marketing strategy ideas and planning
- > Online and social media strategy
- > Packaging design
- > Copywriting
- > Brand development
